

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION.

PLEASE READ IT CAREFULLY.

This Notice of Privacy Practices (the "Notice") describes the privacy practices of Rivertown Compounding Pharmacy ("RCP"). The members of RCP will share Protected Health Information ("PHI") with each other for the treatment, payment and health care operations of RCP as permitted by HIPAA and this Notice.

PHI is information about you that we obtain to provide our services to you and that can be used to identify you. It includes your name and contact information, as well as information about your health, medical conditions and prescriptions. It may relate to your past, present or future physical or mental health or condition, the provision or health care products and services to you or payment for such products or services.

We are required by law to protect the privacy of your PHI and to provide you with this Notice explaining our legal duties and privacy practices regarding your PHI. This Notice describes how we may use and disclose your PHI. We have provided you with examples; however, not every permissible use or disclosure will be listed in this Notice. This Notice also describes your rights and the obligations we have regarding the use and disclosure of your PHI. We and our employees and workforce members are required to follow the terms of this Notice or any change to it that is in effect. We are required to follow state privacy laws when they are stricter (or more protective of your PHI) than the federal law. Note that some types of sensitive PHI, such as HIV information, genetic information, alcohol and/or substance abuse records and mental health records may be subject to additional confidentiality protections under state or federal law. If you would like additional information about state law protections in your state, or additional use or disclosure restrictions that may apply to sensitive PHI, please contact the RCP Privacy Officer at (616) 723-9391.

Uses and Disclosures of Your PHI for Treatment, Payment and Health Care Operations

We may use and disclose your PHI for treatment, payment and health care operations without your written authorization. The following categories describe and provide some examples of the different ways that may use and disclose your PHI for these purposes:

Treatment: We may use and disclose your PHI to provide and coordinate the treatment, medication and services you receive. For example, we may:

- Use and disclose your PHI to provide and coordinate the treatment, medication and services you receive at RCP.
- Disclose your PHI to other third parties, such as pharmacies, doctors, hospitals or other health care providers to assist them in providing care to you or for care coordination. In some instances, uses and disclosures of your PHI for these purposes may be made through a Health Information Exchange or similar shared system.
- Contact you to provide treatment-related services, such as refill reminders, adherence communications or treatment alternatives.

Payment: We may use and disclose your PHI to obtain payment for the services we provide to you and for other payment activities related to the services we provide. For example, we may contact you about a payment or balance due for prescriptions dispensed to you at RCP or may disclose your PHI to other health care providers, health plans or other HIPAA Covered Entities who may need it for their payment activities.

Health Care Operations: We may use and disclose your PHI for health care operations — those activities necessary to operate our health care business. For example, we may:

- Use and disclose your PHI to monitor the quality of our health care services, to provide customer services to you, to resolve complaints and to coordinate your care.
- Transfer or receive your PHI if we buy or sell pharmacy locations.
- Use and disclose your PHI to contact you about health-related products, services or opportunities that may interest you.
- Disclose your PHI to other HIPAA Covered Entities that have provided services to you so that they can improve the quality and efficacy of the health care services they provide or for their health care operations.
- Use your PHI to create de-identified data, which no longer identifies you, and which may be used or disclosed for analytics, business planning or other purposes.

Other Uses and Disclosures of Your PHI that Do Not Require Authorization

We are also allowed or required to share your PHI, without your authorization, in certain situations or when certain conditions have been met.

Business Associates: When we contract with third parties to perform certain services for us, such as billing or consulting, these third-party service providers, known as Business Associates, may need access to your PHI to perform these services. They are required by law and their agreements with us to protect your PHI in the same way we do.

Individuals Involved in Your Care or Payment for Your Care: We may disclose your PHI to a friend, personal representative, family member or any other person you identify as a caregiver, who is involved in your care or the payment related to that care. For example, we may provide prescriptions and related information to your caregiver on your behalf. We may also make these disclosures after your death unless doing so is inconsistent with any prior expressed preference documented by RCP. Upon your death, we may disclose your PHI to an administrator, executor or other individual authorized under law to act on behalf of your estate. If you are a minor, we may release your PHI to your parents or legal guardians when permitted or required by law.

Workers' Compensation: We may disclose your PHI as necessary to comply with laws related to workers' compensation or similar programs.

Law Enforcement: We may disclose your PHI to law enforcement officials as permitted or required by law. For example, we may use or disclose your PHI to report certain injuries or to report criminal conduct that occurred on our premises. We may also disclose your PHI in response to a court order, subpoena, warrant or other similar written request from law enforcement officials.

Required by Law: We will disclose your PHI when required to do so to comply with federal, state or local law.

Judicial and Administrative Proceedings: We may disclose your PHI in response to a court or administrative order, subpoena, discovery request or other lawful process.

Public Health and Safety Purposes: We may disclose your PHI in certain situations to help with public health and safety issues when we are required or permitted to do so, for example to: prevent disease; report adverse reactions to medications; report suspected abuse, neglect or domestic violence; or to prevent or reduce a threat to anyone's health or safety.

Health Oversight Activities: We may disclose your PHI to an oversight agency for certain activities including audits, investigations, inspections, licensure or disciplinary actions, or civil, administrative and criminal proceedings, and as necessary for oversight of the health care system, government programs or compliance with civil rights laws.

Research: Under certain circumstances, we may use or disclose your PHI for research purposes. For example, we may use or disclose your PHI as part of a research study when the research has been approved by an institutional review board and there is an established protocol to ensure the privacy of your information.

Coroners, Medical Examiners and Funeral Directors: We may disclose PHI to coroners, medical directors or funeral directors so that they can carry out their duties.

Organ or Tissue Donation: We may disclose your PHI to organ procurement organizations.

Notification: We may use or disclose your PHI to notify or assist in notifying a family member, personal representative or any other person responsible for your care regarding your location, general condition or death. We may also disclose your PHI to disaster relief organizations so that your family or other persons responsible for your care can be notified of your location, general condition or death.

Correctional Institution: If you are or become an inmate of a correctional institution, we may disclose your PHI to the institution or its agents to assist them in providing your health care, protecting your health and safety or the health and safety of others.

Specialized Government Functions: We may disclose your PHI to authorized federal officials for the conduct of military, national security activities and other specialized government functions.

Uses or Disclosures for Purposes that Require Your Authorization

Use and disclosure of your PHI for other purposes may be made only with your written authorization and unless we have your authorization we will not:

- Use or disclose your PHI for marketing purposes.
- Sell your PHI to third parties (except in connection with the transfer of a business to another health care provider required to comply with HIPAA).
- Share psychotherapy notes (to the extent we have any).

We will obtain your written authorization before using or disclosing your PHI for purposes other than those described in this Notice or otherwise permitted by law. You may revoke your authorization at any time by submitting a written notice to the RCP Privacy Office. Your revocation will be effective upon receipt; however, it will not undo any use or disclosure of your PHI that occurred before you notified us, or any actions taken based upon your authorization.
